

Aminoglycoside Treatment Focus Area

Co-Chairs:

Angie Garinis Peter Steyger

garinis@ohsu.edu petersteyger@creighton.edu

Patients who are treated with aminoglycosides are more likely to develop hearing loss, tinnitus and/or balance problems than those who do not receive aminoglycoside treatment.

Patients are not routinely monitored for hearing loss, tinnitus and/or balance problems.

Source/Copyright: OSHA

IOMG Deliverables

- ✓ Collate/review existing recommendations
- ✓ Work with patients and providers to develop recommendations for applying audiology practice guidelines for ototoxicity management in patients treated with aminoglycosides
- ✓ Submit consensus document for publication
- ✓ Survey patients and providers regarding the acceptance and utility of recommendations