

Environmental & Occupational Focus Area

Chair: Thais Morata
tmorata@cdc.gov

There are no standard methods for the auditory surveillance of individuals exposed to environmental or occupational chemicals.

Consensus guidelines for the clinical care of exposed persons and tools for implementation and health promotion are needed to manage ototoxicity from environmental and occupational exposures.

Source/Copyright: OSHA

IOMG Deliverables

- ✓ Collate existing recommendations, update reviews
- ✓ Work with stakeholders in the fields of occupational health, hearing care and audiology to develop recommendations for applying audiology practice guidelines for ototoxicity management at work and in the clinic
- ✓ Submit this consensus document for publication